

CyberSleuthing: How to Find Anything and Anybody (Just About) FREE on the Internet

An MCLE Program for California Legal Professionals

With Speaker:
Carole Levitt, J.D., M.L.S.

President, Internet For Lawyers
Los Angeles Lawyer magazine's Computer Counselor

There is a wealth of legal, business, investigative, and financial information available on the Internet, all free.

Learn from an Attorney-Librarian how to find anything:

- property records
- information about non-public companies
- historical stock quotes
- how to find anybody--from missing witnesses to just the right expert

...and how to find it all QUICKLY and FREE.

Thursday, January 16, 2003
Mills Law Library
220 Montgomery St., First Floor
San Francisco
Noon - 1 p.m.

Tuition: $50 per attendee – includes a copy of “How to Use the Internet for Legal, Business & Investigative Research” ($34.95 value)

REGISTRATION FORM:

CyberSleuthing: How to Find Anything and Anybody (Just About) FREE on the Internet

An MCLE Program for California Legal Professionals

Please register the following attendees CyberSleuthing: How to Find Anything and Anybody (Just About) FREE on the Internet. Our check for $_____ is enclosed.

Name _____

Name _____

Firm Name _____

Address _____

Phone _____

E-mail _____

Return this form and your check for $50/attendee to:

Cybersleuthing Seminar
C/o Jacob Koff
Librarian
Mills Law Library
220 Montgomery St., First Floor
San Francisco, CA 94104

For more information call Carole Levitt of Internet For Lawyers at 310/559-2247 or e-mail clevitt@netforlawyers.com.

To pay for this seminar by credit card click here or e-mail millslibrary@netforlawyers.com.